A Geographical Dictionary, A Natural History, &c. of Wales.

By the Undertaker E. L.

A V I N G Publish'd some Proposals towards a Survey of Wales, and met with sufficient Encouragement from the Gentry of that Country, and several others, Lovers of such Studies; to enable me (with God's Permission) to Undertake it: Ithought it necessary for the easier and more effectual Performance of so tedious a Task, to Print the following Queries; having good Grounds to hope the Gentry and Clergy (since they are pleas'd to afford me so Generous an Allowance towards it) will also readily contribute their Assistance, as to Information; and the Use of their Manuscripts, Coyns, and other Monuments of Antiquity: The Design being so extraordinary difficult without such Helps, and so easily improvable thereby. Nor would I have any imagine, that by Publishing these Queries, I design to spare my self the least Labour of Travelling the Country, but on the contrary be assured, I shall either come my self, or send one of my Assistance and Parish throughout Wales, and all those in Shropshire and Herefordshire, where the Language and the Ancient Names of Places are still retain'd: And that with all the Speed, so particular a Survey will admit of. My Request therefore to such as are desirous of Promoting the Work, is, That after each Query, they would please to write on the blank Paper, (or elsewhere if room be wanting) their Reports; constining themselves, unless the Subject shall require otherwise, to that Parish only where they inhabit; and distinguishing always betwixt Matter of Fact, Conjecture, and Tradition. Nor will any, I hope, omit such Informations as shall occur to their Thoughts, upon Presumption, they can be of little use to the Undertaker, or the Publick, or because they have not leisture to write down their Observations so regularly as they desire: Seeing that what we sometimes judge insignificant, may afterwards upon some Application unthought of, appear very useful; and that a regular and compleat Account of Things is not here so much expected, as short Memorials, and some Directions in order to a further

Having thus propounded what Queries occur to thy Thoughts; nothing remains, but that I own to the Publick, that in case this Paper meets with a kind Reception (as from this last Summer's Travels, I have great Hopes it may) if the Undertaking be ill perform'd, 'twill be wholly my own Fault; the Gentry of the Country having in all Respects done more than their Part, and afforded such an Encouragement towards it, as might sufficiently require the Labours of a Person far better Qualified for such a Design: But of this, a particular Account (as is necessary) shall be given hereaster. So I shall only add here; that as to these Queries, besides Wales, I intreat the savourable Assistance of the Gentry and Clergy in those other Countries mention d in the former Proposals: And that in all Places, they who are disposed to further the Design, would please to communicate this Paper where they think sit, amongst their Neighbours; interpreting some Querter to these of the Vulgar, whom they judge Men of Veracity, and capable of giving any the least information towards it, that may be perintent and infleticlive.

We judge Mi. Litwyd Qualified for this Undertaking; and that he cannot want proper Materials towards it, if (as an Addition to his own industry) he receives such Answers to these Queries, as can be conveniently return a from each Parith.
